

Appendix C – Show Cause Example

FW: Show Cause - Recruit Applicant [REDACTED]

 Chlopek.NatashaB[PCAP]
To Kurtz.ReneeS[PCAP]

Reply Reply All Forward More
Thu 23/06/2022 15:43

 You replied to this message on 23/06/2022 16:02.

From: Recruiting-Integrity[HRD]
Sent: Wednesday, 19 May 2021 09:00
To: rjsunshine@outlook.com
Subject: Show Cause - Recruit Applicant [REDACTED]

Applicant ID QPSRC [REDACTED]

Good Mornin [REDACTED]

Thank you for your application for consideration as a suitable candidate for selection as a Queensland Police Service (QPS) recruit.

The QPS must have the confidence of the wider community to properly pursue its statutory functions. To this end, it is necessary to ensure that the conduct and integrity of persons seeking selection as a police recruit are beyond reproach.

Pursuant to section 5AA.12(1)(a) of the Police Service Administration Act 1990, concern exists that you may not be suitable to be engaged by the QPS as a police recruit because of the following relevant information:

- That on 9 January 2018, you were involved in a Domestic Violence Incident and as a result, a Domestic Violence Order was issued nominating you as the Respondent on the order.

In accordance with section 5AA.12(1)(b) of the Police Service Administration Act 1990, before a decision is made about your suitability to be engaged by the QPS, you are hereby given fourteen (14) days from the date of this correspondence to make representation about the above issue. That is, no later than 3 June 2021. Please include all relevant information in relation to this issue, and your suitability for employment by the QPS.

Your representation is to be sent to:
The Manager
recruiting-integrity@police.qld.gov.au

Should you not respond to this correspondence, your application will be ceased.

Kind Regards,

Joy Melchiori
Sergeant 9064
Recruiting Section
People Capability Command | Queensland Police Service
Email: Melchiori.Joy@police.qld.gov.au